

K-LOVE is uplifting, entertaining, and encouraging. It also presents news from a Christian perspective, and even news that is of particular interest to Christians that cannot be heard on secular stations. The public needs to have access to news and comments from differing viewpoints, as well as the Christian message of hope.